

School Holiday Fun at Kelly Tarlton's July 3rd – 18th

SUBZERO HEROES – Discover the hidden super powers of Kelly Tarlton's coolest stars

The King and Gentoo penguins are zooming, bouncing and flying around Kelly Tarlton's putting their awesome skills on show these school holidays. Slide into Kelly Tarlton's between July 3rd and 18th to check out the SUBZERO HEROES and see if you've got what it takes to join them!

Did you know penguins are the fastest birds underwater (reaching speeds of up to 36km an hour) and can slide along the ice at more than 20km an hour? Or that they can hold their breath for five minutes or longer while diving more than 200 meters? SUBZERO HEROES puts the spotlight on these and all the other awesome abilities the penguins at Kelly Tarlton's (and those living in the wild) have mastered.

Visitors will be able to see the penguins out on the ice showing off their talents during daily enrichment activities (these activities are designed to ensure the physical, mental and emotional well being of the birds). They can also try their own hand at the different skills by embarking on the Penguin Trail where they can search out the SUBZERO HEROES (cartoon characters positioned around Kelly Tarlton's) and complete a challenge that replicates each hero's special talent. Kids four and over¹ will receive a Penguin Trail guide when they enter Kelly Tarlton's and those who complete all 10 challenges will become SUBZERO HEROES and receive a free pack of collector cards.

During the Snowcat Ride or while watching the penguins on the big screen in the Antarctic Room, kids can spot the real SUBZERO HEROES out on the ice in their everyday penguin disguises. Like all good super heroes they're pretty good at keeping their secret identities quiet but we've given each hero a colour-coded band so kids can tell who's who. Also, we've set up a new camera system in the Antarctic Room that lets kids zoom in on the penguins out on the ice to check their disguises up close.

Away from the ice there are loads of creative ways to keep kids entertained. They can learn how to draw penguins or make them using origami. There's a colouring competition with cool penguin packs up for grabs. You can also chill out and watch the Happy Feet movie that will be playing all day.

Of course every SUBZERO HERO needs a super name – and Kelly Tarlton's have a batch of new recruits (baby and adolescent King and Gentoo penguins born over the past year) who need a cool one. If your name is chosen for one of the birds then you'll win a super-special behind the scenes tour of Kelly Tarlton's penguin enclosure – including going out on the ice where you'll get your picture taken with some of the SUBZERO HEROES!

NAME: Kelly Tarlton's SUBZERO HEROES

DATE: Saturday July 3rd – Sunday July 18th

TIMES: Open 7 days, 9.30am – 5.30pm (last admission 4.30pm)

- Penguin enrichment activity on the ice at 1.30pm every day

¹ ¹ Promotion limited to paying children, while stocks last. 'Paying children' refers to children aged 4-14 years who gain admission on a single child ticket, family pass concession, school holiday programme or Sea Stars visit. Not available for FOCs or children 3 and under. Children 3 and under and those entering FOC can still partake in the Penguin Trail challenges without an official guide or the collector card reward.

School Holiday Fun at Kelly Tarlton's July 3rd – 18th

TIMES CONT:

- Life on the Ice presentation during daily enrichment activity at 1.30pm
- Penguin feeding at 11.30am and 2.30pm every day
- Happy Feet playing all day in the activity room
- Regular Kelly Tarlton's activities such as stingray and shark feedings and encounters continue as normal. Visit www.kellytarltons.co.nz for more information and times for all other scheduled activities.

HIGHLIGHTS AT A GLANCE:

- Take the challenge and test your skills against the SUBZERO HEROES. Find and complete all 10 SUBZERO HERO tasks on your activity sheet to receive a pack of collector cards.
- Ride the Snowcat and identify all 10 SUBZERO HEROES in real life out on the ice (using the colour chart on your activity sheet and the penguins' matching bands).
- Win an awesome behind the scenes look at the penguin enclosure – including a trip out onto the ice to have your photo taken with the SUBZERO HEROES – by coming up with a great super hero name for our new recruits.
- Become a penguin expert and learn what makes each of the 17 different species of penguins special.
- Follow us to Antarctica by checking out the photo-montage board documenting Kelly Tarlton's team members' trips to the frozen continent.
- Learn to draw SUBZERO HEROES with our easy step-by-step guide to drawing penguins.
- Create a penguin out of origami (and while you're busy playing with paper have a go at making a paper jet plane too).
- Take part in the SUBZERO HEROES colouring competition and go in the draw to win cool penguin prize packs.

PRICE: Normal admission prices apply: Adults NZ$31.50, Children 4-14 years NZ$15.80, Children 3 and under FREE. Family passes from NZ$53.60 for one adult and two children. Auckland residents – bring along proof of residency to receive a special locals rate.

LOCATION: Kelly Tarlton's Antarctic Encounter & Underwater World, 23 Tamaki Drive, Orakei, Auckland.

PARKING: There is plenty of free car parking in the Kelly Tarlton's car park.

For more information or to book tickets, visit www.kellytarltons.co.nz or call toll-free on 0800 80 50 50