

Shark Cage/Stingray Splash Assumption of Risk Agreement

In any adventure activity, there is an element of risk involved. In undertaking one of our animal adventures you must be aware that these activities are carried out in an environment that includes numerous fish and sea life and there are risks involved in being in this environment. Snorkelling can be a strenuous activity.

The staff and management of Kelly Tarlton's Antarctic Encounter and Underwater World take all practicable steps to identify and minimise potential dangers.

If you suffer from an existing medical condition PLEASE NOTE:

- some medical conditions may be worse by physical exertion
e.g. heart disease, asthma, lung complaints

- Some medical conditions can result in the loss of consciousness if you exert yourself.
e.g. epilepsy, diabetes.

- Asthma can be brought on by inhalation of cold water or salt water mist

Please inform the guide of any existing medical condition and any concerns you may have.

You agree to release or indemnify Kelly Tarlton's Antarctic Encounter Underwater World and our staff against any injury and/or liability incurred as a result of your failure to follow our instructions.

In signing this document, I/we acknowledge that I/we have read and understood the above risks and adhere to the criteria for participation:
